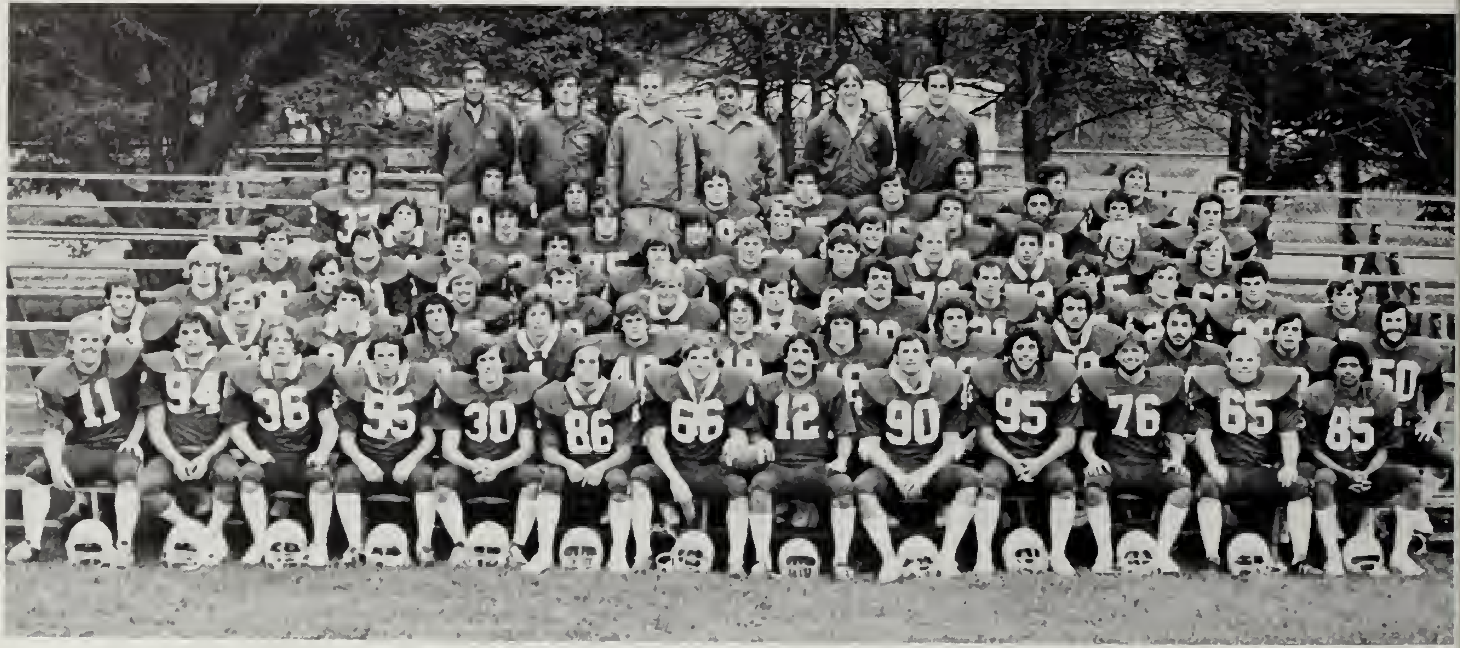
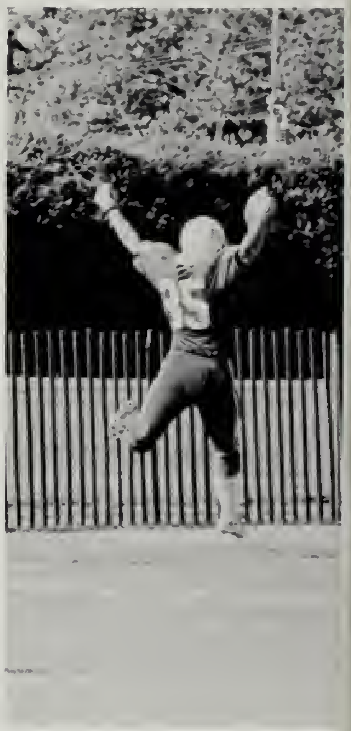
Fall





In Web Harrison's first year as head coach, the Bates football team captured the C.B.B. crown en route to an outstanding 6-2 record. Quarterback Chuck Laurie, threw 5 touchdown passes, tying a New England record, and won the prestigious Golden Helmet Award as Bates rolled over Union, 48-32 in the opener. Other memorable victories included a first-ever win over Amherst, 10-8, a 27-20 victory over Colby, and a 24-14 thrashing of Bowdoin. The season ended on a heartbreaking note as the team fell short of upsetting Tufts and ex-coach Vic Gatto in an emotional thriller. The final score was 16-14.

Field Hockey

Bates field hockey once again had a winning season, posting a record of 7-4-2. This was due in part to a tough defense which was ranked first in the state. The Bobcats had a strong half-back line led by seniors Mary Raftery, Candy Perry, and Susan Howard. In addition, Bates had five players named to the 1978 Northeast College All-Star Team. Senior Captain Allyson Anderson also made the Northeast Regional Squad and played in the U.S.F.H.A. Nationals in Washington.

Cross Country

Finishing with a 9-3-1 record and impressive results in post season meets, the Bates cross country team continued its long tradition of excellence. Despite the absence of All-American Greg Peters, the harriers once again proved they are one of the top squads in New England. Co-captains Kim Wettlauffer and Tom Cloutier continually led the team along with the rest of "the pack". The Bobcats finally gave up their stranglehold of the state title by falling to a surprising Maine team. They unofficially won the NESCAC meet held at Hamilton as Wettlauffer placed first. In addition, they came in third in the IC4A meet and fifth in the New Englands. Wettlauffer capped off a brilliant season by attaining All American honors. Everyone will return to next years squad except senior Jay Ferguson.

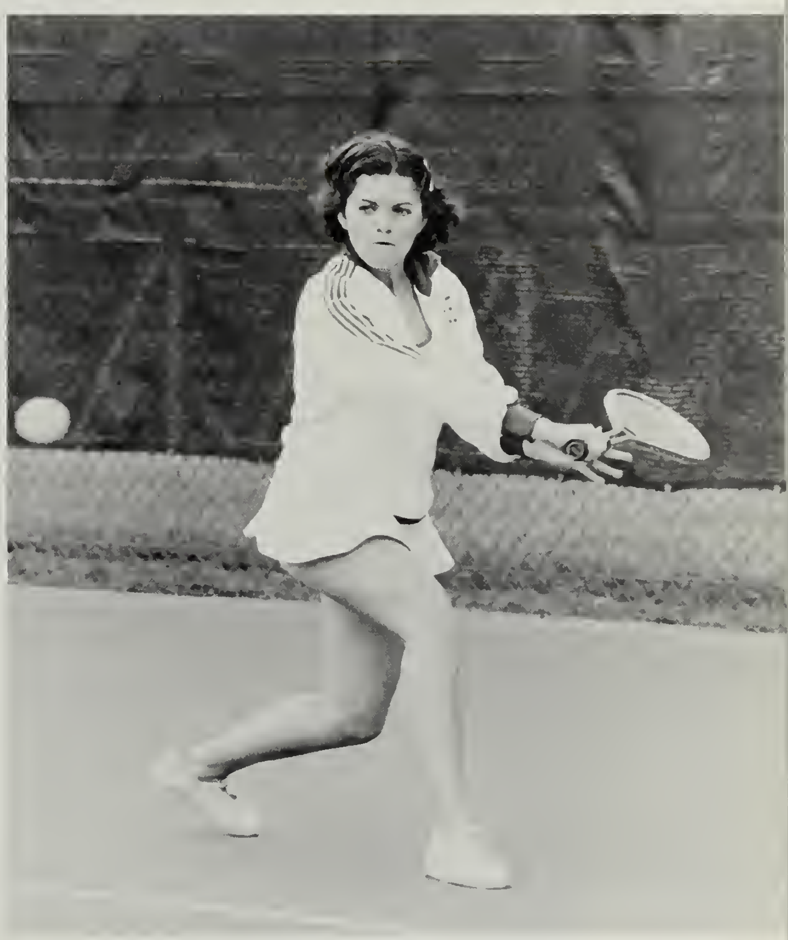
Soccer

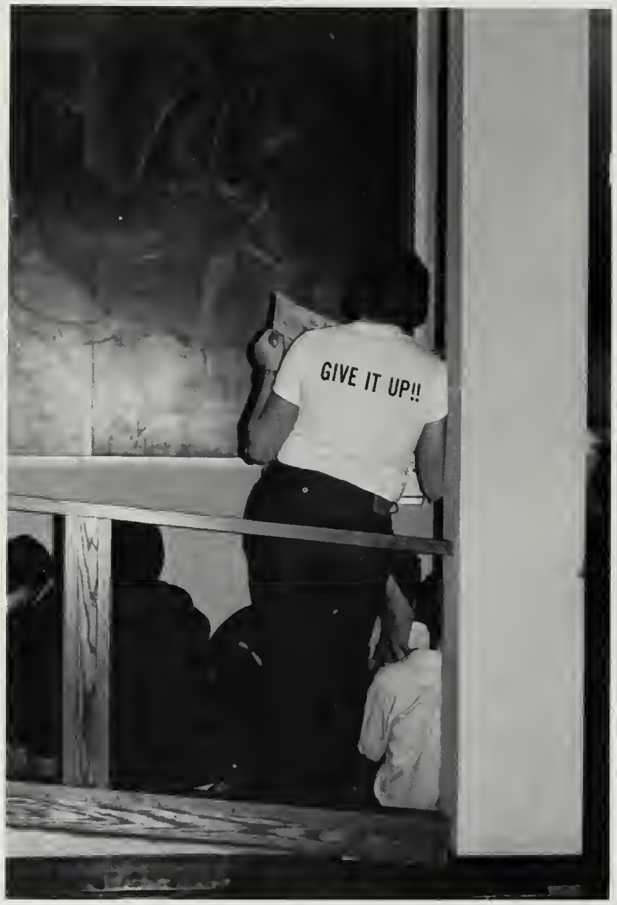
The soccer team ended its campaign with a disappointing 2-9-1 record under new coach Jeff Gettler. The team is sure to improve in the future as the players become more familiar with Gettler's system. Despite their poor record, the booters had many reasons to be proud of their performances. Bates beat perenially strong Bowdoin for the first time in six years by a score of 1-0. They shutout Clark in their other victory as goal tender Jim Hill collected his eighth career shutout, a new Bates record.

Tennis

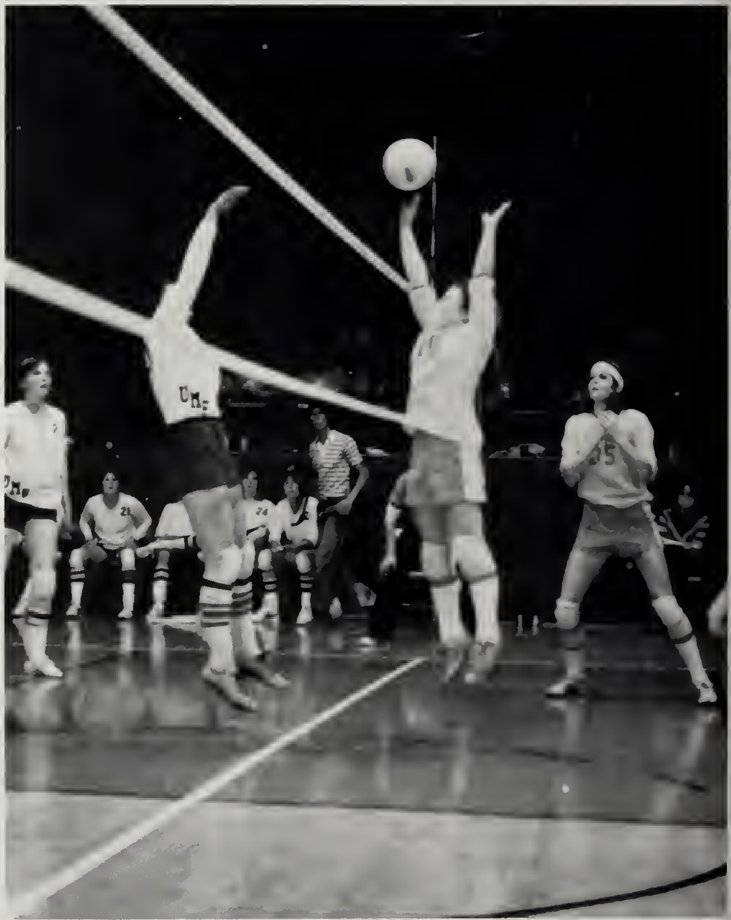


The women's tennis team, under the direction of Pat Smith, produced its first winning season in four years, posting a record of five wins and four losses. Key members on the team were Julie MacDonald ('81), Judy Zipay ('83), and senior Captain Tracy Howe who won the consolation bracket of the MAIAM state tournament both in 1978 and in '76.

Turkey Day



Volleyball



Bates' women's volleyball ended the 1978 season with its best record ever, 24 wins and 10 losses. The team had a strong defense, led by senior Captain Alice Winn. Bates also placed three players on the All-Maine State Team.

SKIING

The men's ski team continued to represent Bates well on the tough, competitive carnival circuit. Zane Rodriguez had a particularly excellent season for the Bobcats. In addition to outstanding results at the carnivals, Rodriguez placed second in the Eastern Nordic Championships and seventeenth in jumping at the Nationals in Colorado. His seventeenth place finish ranked third among Americans in a sport dominated by foreigners. Captain Dave Frost was in the top twenty at several carnivals, including fourteenth at Williams. John Fitz, Dave Nordstrom, and Bill Davies also skied well for Bates.

"An outstanding season" was the way in which Coach Bob Flynn described the women's ski team's efforts this year. In their first year in Division I, the women met the challenge and finished well in many meets, including a second place finish at Colby-Sawyer. The only senior on the team, Co-captain Laurie Schultz, skied well and became the first recipient of the College Club Award for skiing. All in all, it was an excellent year for the Bobcat ski team, "one of the best ever" according to Coach Flynn.

Under the direction of Coach Web Harrison, the Bates women's track team had an impressive season, climaxed by an upset win over U.M.O. in the State meet at Orono. In all, 14 records were shattered with senior Captain Allyson Anderson involved in breaking six of them. In addition, Allyson was the State of Maine Collegiate 440 Champion in 1979.

The team also fared well in the Easterns and sent high jumpers Sue Simpkins and Sue MacDougal to the Nationals held in Missouri. It was by far the best track team Bates has ever had.

The men's track team also enjoyed their finest season in recent memory, with an 8-4 record. The key to the squad's success was its vast improvement in the field events. Consistent scorers included weight men Terry Burke and Mark Miller, jumper Bob Barry, and pole vaulter Paul Brown. As usual, Coach Slovenski's distance men were outstanding. Undefeated in the regular season, Bill Tyler emerged as one of the top half-milers in the east. Tom Cloutier, Tom Rooney, and Kim Wettlaufer also turned in superlative performances.

BASKETBALL

The Bates women's basketball team coached by Gloria Crosby ended the season with a record of 8 wins and 15 losses. Nonetheless there was much talent on this young team. The team was led by senior Captain Sue Pierce, whose career total of 665 points placed her second on the All Time Scoring list. Another key player was sophomore forward Shirley Averill, who broke the single season scoring record with 448 points and was selected to the Northeast Small College All Region Team.

The women played many exciting games, including a come-from-behind win over Mt. Holyoke and two point victories over Wesleyan and Merrimack.

BASKETBALL

Playing with great determination down the stretch, the basketball team won five of their last six games to end the season with an 8-13 record. Despite a very difficult schedule, the Bobcats, fought hard all year long. They were ranked in the top ten on defense in the NCAA Division III. The team was led in scoring and rebounding by Mike Ginsberg and Lou Bouvier. Captain Steve Schmelz and Tim Rice were the floor leaders. The Cats recorded impressive victories over highly touted Tufts and Central Connecticut, a tough Division II team. In addition, they boasted a victory over both Bowdoin and Colby.

Baseball

Even the most cautious optimists expected great results from the 1979 edition of Bates baseball, but instead, the team finished with a modest 11-9 record. The team batting average fell from over .300 in 1978 to just .251. Nevertheless, there were some bright spots at the plate as Greg Zabel hit .343 and set Bates career records for hits and doubles. Gary Page cracked nine homeruns while driving in 23 runs, establishing new Bates records for one season. Sophomore Chris Bond hit a sizzling .338, and Captain Nate Wentworth contributed with a solid bat and spectacular fielding at third base. Pitchers Tom Denegre, Dave Casey, and Chuck Emerick turned in fine performances.

The Bates women's lacrosse team under the direction of Pat Smith finished the 1979 season with a record of 4 wins and 7 losses. The team was led by seniors Allyson Anderson, Amy Gordon, Tracy Howe and Candy Perry. In only her third year of playing lacrosse, Allyson made the New England Regional first team and competed in the Nationals. Sophomore Mary-Ellen Bell led the team in defense and was selected to the New England All College third team.

The Bates College softball team coached by Sherry Yakawonis ended the 1979 season with a record of 3-10. Senior Co-captain Mary Raftery was the pitcher of record for the three wins. During the season she struck out ten. Other key players were catcher Ann-Marie Caron who led in batting with a .444 average and pitcher/outfielder Nancy Madsen who batted in 15 runs. The team played many exciting games, the most thrilling being a 7-6 loss to eventual State champion Colby at the State tournament.

Spring Track

Following the lead of winter track, the spring track program garnered some impressive results for Bates. The squad claimed an unofficial victory in the non-scoring NESCAC meet against the premiere small colleges in New England. The highlight of the season occured at the Nationals in Cleveland where an unprecedented 5 Bates track stars were awarded All-American status. The group was led by Bill Tyler in the 800 meters, Kim Wettlaufer in the 5000 meters, Paul Hammond in the steeplechase, and Zane Rodriguez in the javelin. In addition, Mark Miller and Terry Burke also competed in the hammer throw for Bates at the Nationals.

Richard Nixon Receives First of Bates Student Communications Awards

Bates College Endowment Still Comparatively Small

The Bates Student Communications Award given to Richard Nixon for "efforts and successes in the field of international communications" on the 26th of February was supposed to be the first of four annual awards, but after the uproar of dissaproval it became difficult to find anyone who would accept any further Student awards. The other three catagories were to be national politics, journalism, and campus activities. When prospective honor-recipient, Senator Edward Kennedy, denied any knowledge of the award it became apparent that the Communications Awards should be allowed to die a natural death. So, Student Editor, Robert Cohen, made no further mention of any "annual award."

The front page story in The Bates Student on March 2, 1979 was the first that most Batesies had ever heard of any award to Nixon. That same day a sneering AP article appeared on page two of The Boston Globe and in papers all over the country. The Bates community was hurt, frustrated, and infuriated. Most believed that regardless of the merit of the recipient, the presentation was improper in using the name of the College. The award plaque displayed a representation of the Bates seal, and the words "Bates College" in bold letters. Many felt that the integrity of the Bates community had been cheapened by association.

In consecutive conferences with the press on March 6th, first Rob Cohen and then spokesmen for the student body told their respective sides of the story. The editor of The Student defended his motives and suggested that the student protest was merely a case of jumping on a bandwagon led by a small, vindictive minority. In the following press conferences president of the R.A., Jack Meade, read a statement disassociating the student body from any honor presented by The Bates Student to Richard Nixon, or anyone else.

A summary article in The New York Times said, "Mr. Cohen was all smiles when he had his picture taken with the former President, but there were no smiles on the faces of some 500 of his fellow students who demonstrated this week against his honoring Mr. Nixon."

Both sides soon saw that the best course of action was no action, and like most controversies at Bates College, it soon faded away.
